They sing songs from across the decades, including Here Comes the Sun, You are my Sunshine, Skyfall and more! The choir members are an inspiration... and they hope to inspire you!
6 / Afterglow
Atipyka-Visualab
Auditorium, The Carriageworks, Millennium Square, LS2 3AD
Friday 6 –11pm
Afterglow is a cubic frame audio-visual installation. A series of geometric animations are projected through six semi-transparent screens. With an unusual usage of light, the audience are surrounded by an audio-visual journey where time and space is bent upon itself, creating a new dimension inside the structure and guiding the viewers through the four basic natural elements.

7 / City College
Leeds City College
Leeds City College Technology Campus, Cookridge Street, LS2 8BL
Friday 7.30 –11pm
The college will be showcasing an eclectic assortment of student work, encapsulating the symbiotic spirit of the elements. Through projections of creative arts, games, animation and videos, spectators can revel in the delights of the achievements of college students and enjoy the diversity of talent and creativity.

8 / Laiki#4
Edyta Mańsior
Broderick Hall, Leeds City Museum, Millennium Square, LS2 8BH
Friday 6 –11pm
Laiki#4 is an installation which allows the audience to interact with the artwork. The sonic and visual character of the artwork, together with technological components, enable the participant to witness transient changes in light and sound. This project is part of the Shine Emerging Artist Programme in partnership with Quays Culture.

9 / Building Dreams
Graham Tansley
Civic Hall (rear), Millennium Square, LS1 1UR
Friday 7.30 –11pm
A cleansing and moving multi-tiered projection that will delight.
Town Hall Zone

10 / Apparatus Florius
Tom Dekyvere
Park Square, LS1 2NU
Thursday and Friday 6–11pm
This installation shows the fusion and obstruction of geometric patterns that grow in and through one another. The structure symbolizes the instinctive flow and growth of a plant, taking over the city in search of light. The work questions the balance between the human adaptation and digitalisation of our natural environment.

11 / Cycle Cinema
Reaction
Oxford Row, LS1 3BE
Friday 7.30–11pm
Bike generators are a simple, fun, and practical innovation, allowing people to generate electricity through exercise. Come along and hop on a bike generator to power a cinema in the centre of Leeds.

12 / Fireflies
Rob Harrington & Tom Skinn
Fixedgrinn Collective
The Crypt, Leeds Town Hall, LS1 3AD
Friday 6–11pm (last entry 10.30pm)
Set in a magical and mysterious underground wood, swarms of ‘fireflies’ await to interact with visitors. This participatory artwork is devised by Fixedgrinn.com and uses innovative technology in this unique installation. This project is part of the Shine Emerging Artist Programme in partnership with Quays Culture.

13 / Phase Revival
Superposition
Victoria Hall, Leeds Town Hall,
The Headrow, LS1 3AD
Friday 6–11pm (last entry 10.30pm)
Superposition presents a hypnotic installation based on the principles of quantum mechanics. Using swinging pendulums, lenses and light, the project explores the effects of phase and oscillation through a kinetic sculpture, tuned to a score created from the same mathematics which drives the pendulums. Dedicated to the memory of Becs Andrews.

14 / Spark!
Spark!
Victoria Square, The Headrow, LS1 3AD
Friday 7pm, 9.30pm
Spark! street theatre show is a magical live music, movement and lighting spectacular in which mysterious characters composed of light and sound transform the landscape around them and captivate their audience. Combining high impact drumming, dynamic choreography, playful characters and colourful lighting design.

15 / Flame Oz
Flame Oz
Victoria Square, The Headrow, LS1 3AD
Friday 7.30pm, 8.45pm, 10.15pm
Back by popular demand! Beautifully choreographed fire dancing, stunning pyrotechnics and a liberal dose of Aussie exuberance, the Flame Oz Fire Shows are a hot spectacular for an autumn night!

19 / Waterlight Graffiti
Antonin Fourneau
Victoria Gardens, The Headrow, LS1 3AA
Thursday and Friday 6–11pm

Waterlight Graffiti is an interactive installation made of a wall embedded with thousands of LEDs which light up if their surface is touched by water. Anything damp becomes a tool to drive or write: a sponge, a brush, a water gun, or even a water atomizer to act as an eco-friendly graffiti artist. Developed by French artist, Antonin Fourneau, the project was research led and explores water-sensitive materials.

20 / The Indestructible Reef
Alison M Smith
Victoria Gardens, The Headrow, LS1 3AA
Thursday and Friday 6–11pm

The Indestructible Reef is a series of glowing sculptures created from recycled plastic,crafted to mimic organic forms. Alison Smith transforms waste materials into beautiful objects. She aims to illustrate the effects waste plastics have on our oceans, with plastic particles already outweighing plankton by 26:1 in some areas.

21 / Owl's Shadow on the Moonlit Earth
Douglas Thompson
Central Library, Calverley Street, LS1 3AB
Friday 6–10pm

Owl's Shadow on the Moonlit Earth is a 3D shadow show inspired by Robert Plack's elemental poem "The Snowy Owl". Meet your shadow on the screen and make magical images that leap out into space as you participate in this original performance by artist Douglas Thompson with live music by Max Trewthitt.

22 / H2Us
Artlink West Yorkshire & Love Arts
Central Library, Calverley Street, LS1 3AB
Friday 6–10pm

We are over 50% water. H2Us is a sculpture with droplets floating in the frame representing our connection with water. The constantly moving droplets will glimmer and glitter as they turn in the rising air currents. Participants will be invited, alongside artists Jim Bond and Rozi Fuller, to create their own lanterns inspired by the sculpture.

23 / Explore the Elements
Leeds Central Library
Central Library, Calverley Street, LS1 3AB
Friday 5–10pm

Encounter the unexpected throughout Leeds Central Library. Experience the elements through art and crafts, films and displays created especially for the night. Discover stories of lost voyages and daring expeditions through our rare books and historic maps. Join us in our beautiful Grade II* listed building after dark.
27 / Footsteps

Sam Sebbage
St John the Evangelist Church Gardens, Mark Lane, LS2 8JA
Thursday and Friday 6 – 11pm

“Come walk the path, step by step. Let the footprints take you, where they may. See the light, amongst the grass, it will show you, where they lay.” Footsteps is an interactive installation of grass and light, representing the print each of us leave on our Earth. This project is part of the Shine Emerging Artist Programme in partnership with Entranced Opera North.

28 / Entranced

Opera North
Howard Assembly Room, 46 New Briggate, LS1 6NU
Friday 6 – 11pm (drop in anytime)

A sea of tiny lights, music on all sides. At this year’s Light Night, enter a world in which music has the power to bewitch, enthral and soothe your spirit. From Sufi devotionalis to JS Bach, for kora and oud, violin and cello, Entranced threads together transformative music that comes to life all around you.

---

24 / Giant Dandelions

Olivia d’Aboville
Merrion Gardens, Merrion Street, LS2 8JG
Thursday and Friday 6 – 11pm

The Giant Dandelions installation is a forest of 90 giant lit flowers. Through manipulating over 9,000 recycled bottles, the artist refers to our consumerist society that is polluting our environment. She creates work that is sensitive to light, fluidity and movement, allowing you to walk through the forest with a more sensitive connection to the environment.

25 / [in]visible

Si ieng Fung
St John the Evangelist Church, Mark Lane, LS2 8JA
Friday 6 – 11pm

Artist, Si ieng Fung, uses transparent materials to shed light upon the marvellous architectural detail of historical buildings in Leeds. [in]visible reveals all that has faded into the background of this modern metropolitan city. Visitors are invited to share which buildings have played parts in their lives.

26 / Elemental

Hannah Stained Glass
St John the Evangelist Church Gardens, Mark Lane, LS2 8JA
Friday 6 – 11pm

Four hand-crafted stained glass windows will cast their magic and transport you on a journey through the elements. Travel from earth, through the air, out of the fire and into the cooling water created by colour and light.

29 / Light Water, Dark Sky
Squid Soup
Leeds Dock, LS10 1PZ
Thursday and Friday 6 – 11pm
Immerse yourself in this huge, 3D installation, by digital artists Squidsoup, as it floats in the middle of Leeds Dock. This incredible piece, set to a water inspired soundscape, is made up of 6,000 lights that pulsate and change colour, giving an overwhelming impression of movement.

30 / Light Night at the Tetley
The Tetley
The Tetley, Hunslet Road, LS10 1JQ
Friday 6 – 11pm main programme, Family Art Workshop 6–10pm, DJ Set 7 –11pm
For Light Night The Tetley will be hosting a range of activities including a special multi-media installation, a drop-in film screening of The Way Things Go by Fischli and Weiss and a Family Art Workshop. Our exhibitions of work by Jonathan Trayte and Stass Paraskos will also be open late, and there's a DJ set by Ed Vector in the Bar and Kitchen.

31 / The Ringing Forest
Juan delGado
The Tetley, Hunslet Road, LS10 1JQ
Friday 6 – 11pm
The forest has a unique character. Its sense of place is a function of its history that combines with the natural physical environment to form its cultural landscape. The Ringing Forest explores the forest environment through the lens of the artist's auditory experience, investigating the perception of sound and movement, producing a pool of light that challenges viewers to shift their perspective on nature.
First Direct Arena
Clay Pit Lane, LS2 8BY
Friday 7 – 11pm
Leeds’ flagship event space, First Direct Arena, hosts exciting live music, comedy, spectacular entertainment and sporting events. For Light Night, they are putting on an extra special light display.

Alchemy
Leeds Beckett University
Queen Square, LS2 8AJ
Thursday 6 – 10.30pm
Alchemy experiments with the elements where explorations of attraction and repulsion are played out through an ‘Alchemist’s Battle’ in Queen Square Garden. The event includes spoken word, media and ensemble performances that re-consider how nature evolves into more and more complex structures. Audience members are invited to intervene and influence the performance action according to the rules of the performance game.

Fire Balls
Aragorn Dick-Read
Queen Square, LS2 8AJ
Friday 6 – 11pm
Great forms of fire! Large cut out steel shapes by Caribbean artist, Aragorn Dick-Read, will be set alight as night sets in. These provocative sculptures evoke primal energy and use the vitality of fire to bring life to his intricately cut designs. Dancing figures embracing nature, or profound symbolic patterns that embody the oppositions faced by culture and the elements.
Quarry Hill Zone

35 / Compound

A partnership project between Northern Ballet, Phoenix Dance Theatre, Northern School of Contemporary Dance & Yorkshire Dance

Parkinson Building, LS2 9JT
Friday 6–10pm
Step into a North African Roman tale of the Soul’s journey to fulfilment. Let Zephyr transport you through the air to Cupid’s palace; follow beautiful Psyche (Soul) as she uses fire to discover if her unseen husband is a monster; complete three tasks to gain his trust and her immortality.

45 / A Warm Welcome

Emma Bimpson in collaboration with David Oluwale Memorial Association (DOMA)
Parkinson Building, LS2 9JT
Friday 6–10pm
DOMA and local refugees explore relationships between Leeds and its new citizens. Discover oral and written stories of displacement and re-rooting to the earth and Leeds’ history of welcoming newcomers.

46 / Colonise Night

Jane Scott and Elizabeth Gaston
Parkinson Building, LS2 9JT
Friday 6–10pm
You are invited to walk through a patterned, knitted tunnel, hung in the campus pergola. Using the UV and coloured light torches, experience perceptual changes to the patterns in the fabric, inspired by Earth and the natural environment.

47 / For All Time

Laura Wilson
Treasures of Brotherton Gallery, Parkinson Building, University of Leeds, LS2 9JT
Friday 6.30–9.30pm
"The other two, slight air and purging fire, Are both with thee, wherever I abide". Shakespeare’s own works and later adaptations. Join us as live performances bring words to life from the exhibition For All Time: Shakespeare in Yorkshire.

48 / World of Ice and Fire

Parkinson Court, University of Leeds, LS2 9JT
Friday 6–10pm
We often imagine the world as being made up of just four elements: earth, water, fire and air. Medieval people thought the same. Come and explore a space inspired by elemental imagery from medieval maps.

49 / Thread

SAA-uk
Clothworkers Centenary Concert Hall Foyer, School of Music, University of Leeds, Cavendish Road, LS2 9JT
Friday 8pm, 8.50pm, 9.30pm
Thread is a synthesis of music, dance and light that responds to and brings to life the ‘Dreamer’ a sculpture by Quentin Bell on view in Clothworkers Courtyard. This work aims to capture the movement, richness, fluidity, strength as well as our innate relationship with textiles, its history and the workforce.

50 / Beauty in Harmony

Nankai University Student Choir
Clothworkers Centenary Concert Hall Foyer, Parkinson Building, LS2 9JT
Friday 6.30pm
Immerse yourself in the beautiful sound of the Nankai University Student Choir, who will be touring the UK performing an exquisite repertoire of Chinese folk songs. Let their soaring voices introduce you to another side of Chinese culture while uniting us through music; a language we all understand.
51 / Sculpture for Peace
Melvyn Kelly
Emmanuel Centre, University of Leeds, Woodhouse Lane, LS2 9JT
Friday 6 – 10pm
Join us to help create a beautiful illuminated peace sculpture and to reflect on what peace means to you. Make an origami crane, a traditional symbol of peace, accompanied by some live acoustic music. Each crane will be incorporated into an illuminated sculpture suspended above our unique glass floor.

52 / Books that go Bump in the Night
Rebecca Bowd
Print Room, School of English, University of Leeds, Woodhouse Lane, LS2 9JT
Friday 6 – 10pm (not accessible to wheelchairs or pushchairs)
Descend the stairs into the dark printing chambers. Hear the sounds of Victorian printing presses clattering into action for the first time in 200 years. Meet the mad printer. See the books illuminated by flickering candlelight.

53 / Dimensions
Katherine Lacey
School of Fine Art, University of Leeds, University Road, LS2 9JT
Friday 6 – 10pm
3D effects are projection mapped onto the new fine art building. Focusing on a space theme with music that links to the video, the aim is to transport the viewer through time and spacial dimensions. The piece is an audio visual sensory experience.
